A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY! AN INNOVATION IN CULINARY UTENSILS.

THE COOK'S DELIGHT.

THE

EUREKA FIRE-PROOF STEW PAN.

(Trade Mark Copyrighted).

Made of the finest quality of Earthenware, smoothly glazed inside and outside. Iron bail attached.

In olden times earthenware was considered the best material in the manufacture of culinary vessels, it being considered healthier than metal or any other mineral substance.

The Eureka Pan will cook quicker than any metal pan made. We warrant it to cook food, whether of an acidulous nature or otherwise, free from all foreign flavors and discoloration. Articles cooked therein will never singe as is the case with tin or iron pots.

It is the most practical article in use, superseding all others. No danger of breaking lugs, as our superior method of attaching handles will show. The peculiar construction of the bottom is far superior to that of others having feet, which are easily broken, rendering the pan of no use.

THE CHEAPNESS OF THE PAN
—PUTS IT—
Within the Reach of Every One.

No Kitchen should be without one. Give it a trial and you will like it.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 19.

Consols in London yesterday receded ¼ to 100½, but French Rentes were unchanged, and an advance of ¼ is quoted in the 3½ per cent. Indian Loan and 4½ per cent. Rupee Paper.

In the General Produce markets Coffee is unchanged at 83s. for M. P. Ceylon, Cocoanut-oil is unaltered, Rapeseed comes quiet and slightly lower in value. Linseed is reported firm, with more inquiry, and Calcutta is 6d. per quarter higher. Bombay on the other hand is 1s. lower. Wheat comes dull and partially 6d. per quarter lower.

In Metals since Wednesday last there has been an advance of £2 in Copper Braziers and 10s. in Wallaroo Copper. Hard Spelter is 5s. per ton higher.

Piece-goods in Manchester yesterday were reported quiet but steady, prices, however, showing a general advance of ⅛d. per piece in Madapollams and Jaconets and 1/16 d. in Shirtings.

The Liverpool Cotton market yesterday closed firm, the day's sales being estimated at 14,000 bales (since increased to 19,000), Americans on the spot showing an advance of 1-16d.; and to-day's are still called firm, sales 10,000 bales, Americans being unchanged, but Surats generally 1-16d. higher. In New York yesterday ready Mid-Uplands were unchanged at 11 15-16 cents., but February shipment 11 points lower at 12·26. To-day ready cotton has advanced to 12 cents., February shipment to 12·34 cents. per lb.

We subjoin our usual weekly comparison of the statistical position of the staple, from which it will be observed that the Liverpool stock has decreased during the week by 19,000 bales, whilst the visible supply has increased by 70,000 bales during the same interval. The latter item, however, now stands only 77,000 bales over the corresponding period last year, and if the American receipts continue proportionately on the same moderate scale as at present, it will soon be manifest that supply and demand will be more on an equality than for some considerable time past. We cannot help thinking, however, that the ultimate yield will turn out over what the figure so far would appear to point to, say something between 4 and 5 million. If so, looking to the increased supplies which will be available from other quarters, and the generally depressed state of the Piece-goods market, we are already high enough, if not too high. Surats stand at moderate value, no doubt, but it must be borne in mind that the visible supply is upwards of 20 per cent. over last year, and that in all probability the shipments of the coming season from India altogether will show an increase of fully 200,000 bales.

The American crop figures to date give the following comparison with the two previous years :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Week's Receipts	218,000	255,000	191,000
" Exports to U. K.	66,000	54,000	77,000
" " to Continent	49,000	60,000	52,000
Total Receipts since 1st Sept.	1,817,000	2,105,400	1,904,100
" Exports to U. K. "	560,700	622,600	727,000
" " to Continent "	314,100	371,700	305,000
" Stock in the Ports	826,000	861,000	609,000
Saturday's Receipts	30,000	29,000	27,000

The total visible supply of cotton for all Europe on the 18th instant compares with the same date on the two previous years as follows :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Total supply of all kinds	2,380,000	2,302,680	1,937,770
" " Surats	297,000	242,880	258,620

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

Stock in Liverpool	483,000	441,450	296,990
" " London	42,000	47,330	55,370
American Afloat	170,000	217,000	321,000
" Indian "	42,000	22,000	36,000
	740,000	727,780	709,360
Price of Mid-Uplands	6½d.	6 7-16d.	6 13-16d.
" Fair Dhollera	4 7-16d.	4½d.	5½d.
Difference	2 3-16d.	1 9-16d.	1 5-16d.

Exchange to-day has ruled very steady at yesterday's rates. A moderate amount of private paper has been offering, but sellers have been by no means anxious to force business, a belief ruling in some quarters that the increased Council drawings will lead to a lower level being established. So far, however, Silver continues remarkably steady at 51⅛d. per oz. Closing quotations to-day are :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 15-16d.	per Rs.
" telegraphic	1s. 7 29-32d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 8d.	"
Credits, 3 " "	1s. 8 7-32d.	"
Documentary, 3 " "	1s. 8d.	"
Francs " "	2f. 13½ to 4c.	"

On Calcutta rates are unchanged.

Government Paper to-day has been quiet, but very steady at quite yesterday's prices.

Shares are steady all round except Spinning and Weaving Mill Companies, which are steadily receding in value owing to the unfavourable state of the demand for Goods and Yarns, whilst Cotton at the same time is advancing. The general quotations are as per share. Banks are firm, and Bank of Bombays are again ½ per cent. higher at Rs. 750. Press Companies are unaltered, and we hear of no change in the miscellaneous list.

Cotton to-day has been very firm on the part of sellers, who have been asking fully previous prices showing a loss on rates here to-day of 1-16d. to ⅛d. per lb., irrespective of commission.

Some fresh samples of Berar Cotton to hand to-day show a much better style of staple, no trace of "Belatee" being apparent. It is thus evident that honest cotton can be got if sufficient care be taken of the selection, and there will be all the more reason for affixing punitive allowances where any adulteration is found. All trouble, however, may be avoided if up-country buyers will only be sufficiently decided and refuse "Balatee," unless at a difference of Rs. 30 per candy. The "Kunbis" are perfectly entitled to grow "Balatee," if they so please ; but it is for buyers, by their action, to relegate it to its proper level of value, that of Bengals. Even then the grower does not do with his crop, as it is much easier of cultivation, and the plant produces a heavier weight of Cotton than the usual variety.

Freights are unchanged in every respect, and we have not heard of any business of importance.

Piece-goods are dull in the extreme, and notwithstanding the rise which has taken place in Manchester, prices here are, if anything, the turn against sellers.

Coals are unaltered, and we do not hear of any fresh business.

TELEGRAMS.

THE VICEROY'S TOUR.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

AJMERE, Nov. 19.

The Viceroy arrived here at four o'clock, receiving the usual official reception at the railway station, there being also on the platform the Maharaja of Kishengurh, Raja of Ulwar, Nawab of Tonk, Rana of Dhowlpur, and other native noblemen. The Agra Volunteers and the Mhairwarra Battalion formed guards of honour. The platform and entrance to the station were decorated, and the road to the Residency was lined by the Leicestershire Regiment, Mhairwarra troops, and native levies. The police and the Leicestershire Regiment also formed a guard of honour at the Residency.

The Municipal Committee presented an address of welcome to the Viceroy on his arrival at the Residency. It referred to local works of improvement in the course of construction, and expressed a hope that so long the decentralization policy would be extended to Ajmere. The Viceroy, in the course of his reply, remarked that Government attached much importance to the principle of the funds raised by municipalities being devoted to objects over which they could advantageously exercise direct control, as being a sound principle of taxation, calculated to promote self-government. He concluded by referring to Lord Lawrence's visit to India, asking them to join him in giving his lordship, now present in Ajmere, a hearty welcome. He was the son of a man who had given all his energies, talents, and the purity of character by which he was distinguished to the service of India and England, and the name and memory of John Lawrence would never fade from the recollection of Europeans and natives in this country. He esteemed it a fortunate circumstance that he was the first Governor-General of India to whose lot it had fallen to welcome the present Lord Lawrence in India, because he had set before himself, from the very first hour when he undertook the great task of the administration of India, the noble example of John Lawrence as that which he should endeavour to follow; and it would be the proudest object of his ambition to walk, so far as he was able, in his footsteps.

The levée in the evening after dinner was well attended. The railway station and temples on the summit of Taraghur were illuminated.

When the horses passed the stand the first time, Fizz was leading, Coongoola being second. Soon afterwards Bowen took Bluelight into the second place. A mile from home Coongoola fell back beaten. Ascending the hill, Bluelight took up the running, and Despot ran into the second place. The required number of horses having arrived in Bombay, the tramway extension to the Grant road railway overbridge will, we learn, be opened for public use from the 1st December next.

WE see Lord and Lady Lawrence, who arrived here by last week's mail, have joined the Viceregal party at Ajmere.

THE receipts from Khyber tolls during the months of September and October amounted to close upon Rs. 14,000.

THE official returns regarding the mortality from cattle disease in Kulu during the past fifteen months show the enormous total of 22,112 head.

THE Lahore paper hears that a committee is about to be formed, of which the Executive Engineer and the Deputy Surgeon-General of the Punjab Frontier Force will be members, to report on the best means for improving the water supply of the troops at Kohat.

THE Allahabad Criminal Sessions have had to be postponed until Monday, the 28th instant, on account of the indisposition of Mr. Justice Straight.

THE strength of the division (head-quarter) of the 14th Hussars expected in Bombay on the 3rd December per Government hired steamer Calabria, from Natal, is 15 officers, 190 men, and 221 horses.

BRIGADE-SURGEON R. F. HUTCHINSON, M. D., has been appointed to the administrative charge of the Quetta district.

IT is stated that Surgeon-General Sir Anthony Homes, K.C.B., V.C., has been selected to succeed Dr. Crawford as principal medical officer in India, on the latter replacing Sir William Muir as Director-General of the Army Medical Department in England.

RECENT forgeries of banknotes in Ceylon have caused the Oriental Bank Corporation to issue a new series of notes "which from their exquisite workmanship and intricate design are likely to defy the efforts of local forgers to imitate them."

The Indian Spectator says of the tramway:—The men—driver, conductor, and inspector—ought to be better paid. Each one of the trio is generally a peevish fellow, going to seed in the very prime of youth. He does not seem to be in love with the company. If he is, he appears, like Butler's oyster, crossed in love. His dress and demeanour proclaim him a hard-worked, illused animal. The management must give us smart, cheerful, obliging men.

A COLOMBO paper believes "it has now been finally arranged that the Bacchante, with the sons of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales on board, will return to Europe vid the Suez Canal, though we have not heard of any date having been as yet decided upon. The authorities of Singapore evidently expect a visit from the young Princes, and that being the case, it is quite probable that Ceylon may also be visited; indeed, it is most likely to be the case, seeing that we are in the direct route from the Straits to Aden."

THE North-West Provinces Crop and Weather Report for the week ended Nov. 16 states that no rain fell in any district. The rabi everywhere requires rain, and irrigation has commenced in some quarters. Prices on the whole are stationary. Fever is still prevalent, but diminishing, except in Oudh, where it has assumed a more fatal form. Cholera continues in part of Lucknow, and measles in Kumaun. Cattle disease continues in Kumaun, Farrukhabad, and Allahabad, but is diminishing in Jhansi.

THE Director of Agriculture and Commerce, North-West Provinces and Oudh, has submitted his report on arboricultural operations during the year ending the 31st March last, from which it appears that "out of 26,302 miles of road, 1,587½ were under operation this year, the length newly taken up being 455½ miles. The expenditure during the year was Rs. 38,740 out of a budget grant of Rs. 40,448; but a sum of Rs. 21,109 was realised on account of loppings and fellings, so that the net cost to Government was Rs. 17,631. The number of trees planted was 65,938, the majority being producers of either fruit or fodder."

IT appears that cinchona trees are no more free from natural enemies than coffee. Caterpillars attack and destroy the leaves in great numbers, whilst a species of canker affects the bark and roots, the latter suffering frequently from the depredation of "grub." A Colombo paper says the remedies for both are "liberal digging of the soil and exposure of the roots to the action of the air, which we are assured has succeeded in curing some very badly cankered trees."

THERE is a considerable improvement in the health of Amritsar city, as indicated by the death-rate for the last week:—Sunday, 6th, 170; Monday, 7th, 156; Tuesday, 8th, 144; Wednesday, 9th, 139; Thursday, 10th, 121; Friday, 11th, 138; Saturday, 12th, 110. That the improvement is due to the distribution of food is shown by the fact that the Mahomedan death-rate has decreased in a far more marked proportion than that of the Hindus, who do not resort to the kitchens to the same extent as their Mahomedan fellow-towns men. We sincerely hope that the improvement will be lasting, and that the worst of this terrible epidemic may be considered to be past. It is, however, hardly to be expected that the death-rate will fall to its normal condition for some time to come. The Lahore paper remarks that "considering the number of bread-winners who have died, or are still prostrated from the effects of the fever, and the number of employers of labour who have died or temporarily closed their workshops, there cannot but be an enormous amount of distress, especially among the Kashmiri shawl weavers; and we know of no more deserving object of private charity than the condition of these classes in Amritsar at present affords. We have no doubt that any subscriptions for the relief of suffering that may be sent to the local authorities will be thankfully received and judiciously expended."

A COMMISSION has been appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal to inquire into the causes of the fever epidemic that has now for two successive seasons prevailed with great severity in the district of Nuddea. The commission will be composed of Dr. Lidderdale, Sanitary Commissioner of Bengal, Mr. A. W. Paul, C.S., and Mr. T. Haines Wickes, Superintending Engineer. The Bengal Government, as is well known, inclines to the view that these epidemics of malarious fever are principally due to obstructed drainage and the consequent water-logging of the soil, and the attention of the commission is especially called to roadways and embankments as obstructing drainage, and to the choking up of channels and water-courses.

THE Journal of the Anjuman-i-Punjab understands that "the following financial arrangements are to be shortly applied to the Civil Service:—(1.)—'Acting allowances,' which at present often offer such difficulties in the adjustment of pay, will be abolished, and the officiating officer will draw the pay of the permanent incumbent during the time that he acts for him. (2.)—There will be no 4 per-cent. deduction for pension, Government undertaking to give the whole amount of a Civilian's pension of £1,000 a year, the officer receiving so much "net pay" during his period of service, which of course means after deducting what has hitherto been paid as the Civilian's share towards his pension. Subscription to the funds does not enter into this calculation. It has also been determined, for immediate application, that the number of Civilians to be indented for yearly is to be reduced to a minimum, so as to prevent in future the block in promotion from which Civilians now suffer, and to enable the lower ranks of the Commission to be recruited from below. Finally, it has been settled that no Civilian shall draw less than, say, Rs. 900 per mensem after ten years' service. The above statements indicate the rough outlines of a scheme that has been under contemplation for some time, and is to be carried out without further delay."

Of the new Governor, the Madras correspondent of the Pioneer writes:—"Mr. Grant Duff has already shown that he intends to work up the duties he has come to India to perform. He has commenced by visiting each institution of importance at Madras, and will no doubt employ himself with objects of interest in the vicinity until the Christmas holidays are over. It is probable that he will then start on a tour through every district under his control, making himself thoroughly acquainted with the Presidency, and with the various officials entrusted with authority therein. We have seen already quite enough of our Governor to come to the conclusion that the reports we have heard from England to his disadvantage should, at all events, be taken cum grano salis. His manner is affable to all, and he seems to take pains to make himself pleasant. If supported by his staff with tact, unanimity, and zeal, his Excellency ought to prove a popular as well as a wise ruler. He possesses, I may finally tell you, one incalculable advantage,—the want of which fettered the Duke beyond measure,—to wit, a charming wife, who seems by nature intended for the position in which she is now placed. Thanks to Mrs Grant Duff's good taste and skilful management, the entertainments at Government House will no doubt become especially enjoyable."

QUOTING our remarks on the subject of the proposed abolition of the separate armies of Bombay and Madras, the Indian Daily News adds: "Should the coast armies ever be abolished, it will argue that the old governing instinct of Englishmen has decayed, and that instead of the practical insight which has hitherto taught them to turn every political circumstance to account, they have so far lost fibre as to be swayed by theories, even when their actual position is such as to demand a more than usually stern abstention from the attempt to convert pure theory into ill-considered practice."

WE make the following extracts from an article in the Englishman on the question of the establishment of an Indian Marine:—"The policy adopted by successive Governments of late years has been to discourage any attempt to form an Indian Marine corresponding at all to the old Indian Navy, and rather to rely upon the Royal service for the performance of the more important duties. The gunboats employed in the Persian Gulf, some of which ill-natured people say were originally intended by the Admiralty for service on the Canadian Lakes, and were consequently placed at the disposal of India for work in the hottest part of the world, must cost a considerable sum, and are extravagant in the waste of human life which occurs in them. The East India Squadron is another heavy charge on the revenues of India, while a very handsome subsidy is paid for her Majesty's Indian troopships, employed in conveying troops to and from England and India. If a proper Marine or Indian Navy were established on a moderate scale, the Indian Government might have its own gunboats in the Persian Gulf and its own troop service for the conveyance of troops to and from England, and the Royal Navy would be released from a service which is distasteful to it. After all it may be questioned whether a much larger supervising and administrative staff would be necessary than is now employed for somewhat insufficient results. The Calcutta and Bombay dockyards would probably be more fully employed, but their cost would certainly not be increased proportionally. The present marine arrangements for India are neither one thing nor the other. They consist partly of an incomplete service which, although the subject of discussion and report for many years, cannot be said to be in a thoroughly efficient condition, and partly of assistance furnished by the Royal Navy highly paid for from Indian revenues, and over whose expenditure India practically has no control. It would appear to be worthy of consideration whether it would not be a better plan to have a small and efficient Indian Navy or Marine Service to form a nucleus which might be supplemented by the mercantile marine, as it would probably not be a wise arrangement to put all our eggs into one basket, and to trust to the latter altogether. But the present arrangements are neither economical nor efficient, and we trust that those responsible for the financial condition of India may turn their attention to a subject which merits reform in the interests of the Indian taxpayer."

THE examination of the injuries caused by the recent gale to the Madras harbour works, has been facilitated by the calm weather which has prevailed since Monday; and, the Mail says, the general result of the investigations that have been conducted, is, that the damage has been found to be much under-estimated. It was conjectured on Saturday that breaches of no great depth or width had been made; and that the upper tier or course of blocks had alone suffered. But we regret to have to state that, for most intents and purposes, the whole of the eastern face of the harbour, consisting of two piers, measuring in all nearly half a mile, has been wrecked. Here and there at long intervals half a dozen, or so, of blocks remain above water, to mark the line that the piers took, and elsewhere the blocks can be discerned a little below the surface of the sea; but for the most past there is a series of great gaps or breaches. One of these breaches, when sounded, proves to be 18 feet deep, so that three of the four courses of blocks have been swept away, and little remains below but the rubble base. It is noteworthy that most of the blocks that are still visible above or a little below the surface of the water have been thrown out of the level position they formerly occupied, and slope inwards or towards the shore. This warrants the conclusion that the rubble base has been partly scoured away, and that superincumbent wall of blocks has sunk with that base. The Titans are in too deep water to be seen, and it is probable that they will be left where they are. But, remarks our contemporary, the inherent weakness of Mr. Parkes's plan has been proved in time to allow of measures being taken to strengthen the remaining piers, by bonding and by tipping over stone and blocks of concrete to protect the rubble base and the walls. The eastern piers can be re-erected on the site of those that have been ruined, and it is probable that the débris will be utilized as an outwork, or screen, for piers constructed on better principles a little west of the site alluded to. For the present the reefs which the wreckage of the old piers have formed visibly break the swell of the sea as it rolls into the space enclosed for the harbour; and, as the swell north and south of that space is cut off, there is still sufficiently smooth water within the harbour to meet the ordinary requirements of commerce. The Government will have to decide at once whether they will ask the Secretary of State to engage Mr. Parkes for a further space to correct his errors of design, or whether they will advise that the arrangement with that gentleman shall be terminated at once, and that the restoration works be entrusted to an engineer who is not pledged to Mr. Parkes's theories. On this point the Mail says:—If Mr. Parkes is prepared to recoup the Government for the loss of the 10 lakhs, or so, that has resulted from the destruction of his piers, then it may be worth while to give him another chance; but as he is not likely to offer to do this, and as at his advanced time of life he may not care to remain in Madras throughout the progress of the reconstruction, the Government should put the business into other hands, and thereby give the port another chance of being provided with a harbour that will not succumb to a second-class storm."

THERE was a rumour when the last mail left London that no more captains of infantry were to be promoted majors in place of those seconded for service in the Staff and with the Auxiliary Forces. A contemporary remarks that this will make the look-out for subalterns more dismal than ever, for there are 239 captains in the line and Rifle Brigade supernumerary to the new establishment. The case is more fortunate, as there are only two, one in the Carabineers, and one in the 13th Hussars.

THE Berlin correspondent of the Morning Post says that "semi-official people now concede that M. Gambetta did meet Prince Bismarck during his stay in Germany, and that the visit was previously arranged."

THE central Land League offices in Sackville-street, Dublin, are now empty, all the furniture having been removed and the clerks having departed. Two offices of the Ladies' League are still open. This body is organizing a Children's Land League. A branch of the new association, consisting of children under the age of twelve years, was opened at Loughrea. A procession was formed, and the children, about four hundred in number, carrying several banners, marched, through the town singing "God save Ireland," and followed by about five hundred persons. A strong force of police were in the streets, but did not interfere. The branch leagues appear for the most part to have ceased their operations, and their offices have been closed. In some instances, however, the members have persisted in holding meetings. In such cases the police have generally limited themselves to pointing out the illegality of the meetings and taking the names of those present.

THE Bombay Yacht Club will be interested in the following paragraph from the Pall Mall:—Mr. Ashbury has been reading a good-humoured lecture to American yachtsmen, who are much troubled about the victories of a little Scotch cutter. "The cutter," says Mr. Ashbury, "is our national rig." It is like your trotter in horse-racing. Your models are bad. You build shallow vessels which will float as a skimming dish will float. Take this cup, for instance (Mr. Ashbury was at breakfast). You put a mast in the middle (and the speaker stuck a knife in it) and drop it into a duck pond and it will go, but just try to bring it back. You have some yachts as fine, I suppose, as any in the world, but take them as a whole—pick out, for instance, a dozen of the crack schooner yachts in each country and send them over to Cowes, and just see where they'll be." However this may be, the New York Club has determined to try conclusions, and is about to invite English yachts to compete for the America Cup, and will offer a thousand guineas to be sailed for by cutters of ninety tons or thereabouts. The English, Mr. Ashbury thinks, are much smarter seamen. They are handsomely paid if for every victory "the captain and pilot receive £5 each, and a crew of some thirty men a pound each." There is, too, the chance of a lost spar, worth £100. A cook receives £150 a year. Perhaps it was out of revenge for his plain speaking that the following story is told:—

"Mr. Bennett invited me," says Mr. Ashbury, "to go down with him on his yacht to a place here where you are having some sort of an affair—to—" "Yorktown," suggested the reporter. "Yes, just so, Yorktown—what are you doing at for? What does it commemorate?". When the reporter had recovered his breath, he replied: "A hundred years ago at Yorktown, Lord Cornwallis had the misfortune to be compelled to surrender his sword to one General Washington." The name of Lord Cornwallis was evidently known to Mr. Ashbury for he replied: "Ah, yes; I believe I have heard something about that. My word, what a people you are to get up anniversaries!"

PRINCE'S DOCK.—The s. s. Peshawur left the dock on Friday, and the s. s. Gleadowe and the Britannia entered on Saturday.

FAIR.—The annual Nowa-wady fair will commence to-day (Monday) at that locality, and will continue for four successive days.

THE CHORAL FESTIVAL AT THE CATHEDRAL.—The sermon at the Choral Festival, to be held to-morrows will be preached by the Rev. W. Black, S. S. J. E.

WANT OF LIGHT AT THE CATHEDRAL.—The service at the Cathedral last evening was conducted in something like total darkness. The gas was not used, and only a few small lights were placed in the church.

THEFT AT GIRGAUM BACK-ROAD.—Gopall Cristna, residing at Girgaum Back-road, reported to the police yesterday that during his absence from home on the night previous some person broke into his premises by removing the lock of his front door. Property consisting of gold and silver ornaments of the value of Rs. 328, and Rs. 4 in cash, were stolen.

FIRES.—A jowlee hut situated near the old Powder Works was at about 4 o'clock on Saturday morning last burnt to the ground. The hut appears to have been set on fire by sparks from an adjacent lime-kiln. The damage is estimated at Rs. 25.—A chawl constructed of jowlees and bamboos, and occupied by a number of sweepers, at Walpakady, Mazagon, was found to be on fire at about 5-30 a.m. yesterday. The chawl was burnt to the ground. The Mazagon steam fire engine and the Pydownee manual engine were in attendance in good time. The fire is said to have originated by a spark from a fire-place in one of the rooms of the chawl. The damage is estimated at Rs. 200.

ASSAULT.—A Mahomedan named Hussain Zuna was on Friday night last severely beaten with sticks at Borah-gully by a gang of Mahomedans. Two of the assailants, named Ookurjee Cassum and Fakeera Yakoob, were subsequently arrested by the police, the others having absconded. The injured man was removed to the J. J. Hospital in a semi-conscious state, and shortly after admission into hospital he became totally unconscious. He is at present lying in a precarious state.

THEFT AT NOWROJEE HILL.—Dajee Khundoo, residing on the first floor of a house at Nowrojee Hill, reported to the police on Friday last that during his absence from home on that day some person entered his premises and stole a small wooden box containing gold and silver ornaments and wearing apparel, of the value of Rs. 112-8. A man named Mahadoo Nagoo, living on the same floor of the house, was seen by the neighbours carrying a small box down the stairs that forenoon, and as he has since absconded, he is suspected of having committed the theft.

SINGULAR RESTITUTION OF STOLEN PROPERTY.—The property, consisting of jewellery of the value of Rs. 260, recently stolen from the premises of Sergeant-Major Fatma, at the barracks near Pilot-bunder, Colaba, has been discovered under very singular circumstances. It appears that as Sergeant-Major Williams and his wife were about to retire at 9 o'clock on Friday night last, Mrs. Williams found a parcel, with a stone wrapped in it, in the verandah. On taking the paper to the light in the sitting-room, the following was found written on the paper "Sergu-Major Vilgms see you thins at small ouse

At Bara cokose." Inspector Collett was at once sent for, and a search was made about the little house that encloses the tomb of the Mahomedan Peer, situated about two hundred yards from Sergeant-Major Williams' quarters, and there in a hole in the rock, Mr. Collett found the whole of the property belonging to Sergeant-Major Williams tied up in a rag; also two other silver ornaments, which complainant had forgotton to mention in the list he had given the police. Further inquiries were instituted, but nothing was discoverd to connect any person with the secretion of the property.

MADRAS TIME IN BOMBAY.—In humble imitation of the Pope Gregory who struck out eleven days from the calendar, the Bombay Government have decreed that in all the Government offices of this Presidency half an hour should be sacrificed and the clocks moved on that space, "so that Madras time shall rule in Bombay. Government may perceive reasons for this change that we do not; but it is likely to lead to confusion and misunderstanding. Life itself is sometimes staked upon the right understanding of an appointment, and it seems to us to be a mistake to introduce rules that tend to embarrass this matter of punctuality. It is taken for granted that all the employés of Government will be able to attend office half an hour earlier without inconvenience. We doubt this.—Bombay Guardian.

ECCLESIASTICAL.—It is rumoured that the Rev. Mr. Stead, Archdeacon, will shortly go to Bombay, to officiate as chaplain of the new church at Malabar-Hill, and that the Rev. Mr. Clarke, now at Ghorepoorie, will be appointed to fill the vacancy at St. Paul's.—Deccan Herald.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT AT HYDERABAD.—His Excellency Sir Salar Jung will give a dinner-party to-morrow (November 17) evening to a large number of ladies and gentlemen, who will proceed to his palace in the city after the close of the day's races. After dinner there will be a grand exhibition of fire-works, for which this city is somewhat famous: but the prominent feature of the evening's entertainment, and quite a novelty at Hyderabad, will be the electric lights, whose brilliant radiance will be displayed on this occasion.—Deccan Times.

SUICIDE OF A PARSEE GIRL.

A CORONER'S inquest was held on Saturday evening last at Chinchpoogly, on the body of George William Thompson, aged about fifty-nine years. Deceased was an Inspector in the Health Department of the Bombay Municipality and was a sober, steady man. On Saturday morning he attended to his duties as usual, but complained of feeling very unwell. He was breathing heavily, and this he attributed to a violent cold. Deceased returned home at 10 a. m. and had a cup of tea. At 12-30 he asked his servant to bring him another cup of tea. On the second cup of tea being taken into his room by his servant he was found dead on his bed, lying on his left side. His features were composed, and there was no froth at the mouth. There were no external marks of violence on the body. The following verdict was recorded: "that the death of George William Thompson was caused by heart-disease.

DIVINE SERVICE.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

SERVICE will be held on board the s.s. Cameo, in the Prince's Dock, at Sanitary Commissioner repeats his recommendation in favour of the appointment of a Special Health Officer for the City of Madras. The impediments in the way hitherto have been the want of funds on the part of the Municipality, and the difficulty in the opinion of the Surgeon-General of combining the office of Health Officer with any other medical duties. No such difficulty, however, as pointed out by the Sanitary Commissioner, has been experienced in Calcutta or Bombay, and it seems desirable that the Surgeon-General should ascertain where the difference lies, and whether the difficulty in Madras can be removed. On the whole, and under present circumstances, the Government are satisfied with the sanitary progress of the year; but trust that it may prove to be practicable to secure closer sanitary inspection, and that by its means very much more may be done in time to come, not so much as regards objects of mere public comfort and convenience as in ensuring the adequate protection of great masses of people from the various forms of disease prevalent in the country.—Times.

CHOLERA IN THE MADRAS PRESIDENCY.—We regret to learn that cholera has made its appearance in Komaratche, a village seven miles to the west of Chidambaram. The place was inspected on the 14th instant by the Assistant Surgeon attached to the Civil Dispensary, Chidambaram, and the Tahsildar. Nineteen cases are reported to have occurred. Thirteen have succumbed to the disease. Three are in a precarious state, while the remaining three are under treatment. Much consternation prevails. The services of a hospital assistant for extra duty have been applied for.—Mail.

ARREST OF A PASSENGER ON THE S. S. ASIA.—The Commissioner of Police at Thyetmyo telegraphed to the Commissioner of Police at Madras to arrest Loganathan Naidoo, a Police Constable, who was a passenger to Madras by the s. s. Asia, on a charge of receiving and assisting in the concealment of stolen property. Acting Inspector Marshall of the Marine Police, as soon as the steamer anchored in the harbour, went on board, and arrested the man, and on his being searched, a silver watch, gold Albert chain, a gold locket, two gold rings, and Rs. 302 were found in his possession. The property was taken charge of by the police, and the man lodged in the Penitentiary. He will be sent back to Thyetmyo by the next steamer.—Mail.

MURDER AND ATTEMPT TO MURDER.—A Mahomedan named Syed Madar alias Bomman Sahib, was recently brought up before the Sessions Court of South Arcot, charged with an attempt to murder his wife, Fatma Bee, and with having accomplished that of his brother-in-law, Kassim Sahib, a boy of about seven or eight years of age. Although the prisoner had been married some time, his wife had not been sent to his house, as she had not come of age, but he had been lately demanding that she should be handed over to his care on the ground that her relatives did not keep her "kosha as they should; the girl's people, however, continued to put him off on one pretext or another, notably that his house was not ready. While matters were in this state, prisoner happened one day to see his wife bathing in a tank, and it so chanced that he was carrying a knife at the time, and obeying the impulse of the moment he proceeded to the tank, apparently resenting his wife's public exhibition of herself, and going up to her he gave her two or three cuts before she could effect her escape. He appears then to have turned on the boy, and to have killed him on the spot. Before the Sessions Court, the prisoner admitted in the main the charges brought against him, merely alleging provocation on the part of his wife's relatives, by their neither keeping her kosha, nor sending her to him in compliance with his demand. As regarded the murder of the boy, he alleged that it was accidental, his story being that the lad was in his sister's arms, and so received the cuts intended for her. But he was found guilty and sentenced to death, subject to the confirmation of the High Court, which was accorded in due course. The prisoner preferred a futher appeal to the mercy of Government, but this too has been rejected.—Id.

CIVIL SURGEON AT AMBALLA.—Dr Duke has arrived at Amritsar and taken over the duties of Civil Surgeon from Surgeon-Major Thompson, transferred to Ambalia. We hope Dr. Duke's appointment will be permanent; frequent changing of horses while crossing a stream are to be regarded as dangerous experiments.—Civil and Military Gazette.

SERIOUS ROBBERY.—On Sunday night, a Halvai's shop near Moore gate was broken into at about 11 o'clock, and jewels, cash, and other property, valued at about Rs. 3,000 were stolen. The shop is situated in the open bazaar, and the burglars broke through another house in the lane close to the shop, and entered it from inside the lane. The matter was immediately reported to the police, who are making inquiries into the case. No trace of the robbers has as yet been discovered.—Id.

SUICIDE AT LAHORE.—"One who knows" writes to us:—"Permit me to correct an error in the local column of your issue of the 15th instant. The young man who shot himself (accidentally—not deliberately) last Sunday was not the Mr. Glegg employed in the Central Jail Press, who is still alive, and still maintains his former character for steadiness; but his elder brother, a young man, who lately purchased his discharge from the army, and was temporarily employed in the Public Works Department, Secretariat Press."—Id.

DRUGGED AND ROBBED.—A man named Hoosein Ali Sheik was lately going to Raneegunge by train (E. I. Railway). Four men made friends with him on the way, and got with him into one compartment. One of the four men gave him pan which contained stupefying drugs. When on seeing the man insensible they took his baggage and got down at Bally. Hoosein Ali, having regained his senses at the Durgapore station, missed his friends (the four men) and his baggage. He informed the nearest police, who arrested one of the four culprits. The other three are still at large, but enquiries after them are being made by the police.—Id.

A METEOR.—Our Mussoorie correspondent, writing on the 15th instant, says:—"Just a line to ask if you, or any one in Agra or elsewhere, observed the magnificent meteor which was seen here last evening, at about 7 o'clock, in the west. It surpassed, in size and brilliancy, anything of the kind I have ever seen. The whole place, as far as you could see, was lit up as if by the most vivid flash of lightning. All the Landour hill, and every house on it, were rendered distinctly visible. The brilliancy lasted for about 30 seconds. The size of the meteor resembled that of a large bomb, and it seemed to fall in the western Doon. The natives view the occurrence as very ominous, many of them believing in a prediction that the world will be destroyed on the 15th, to-morrow! In such an event this letter of mine will of course, never appear in the columns of the old Delhi!—Delhi Gazette.

DEPARTURE OF THE ALLAHABAD BATTERY.—B. 4 Royal Artillery which arrived at Allahabad, about July 1878, from Barrackpore, commenced its march in the ordinary course of relief, towards Rawal Pindi, yesterday (Friday) morning, leaving the encamping ground at 6-30 a. m. During the battery's sojourn here it has been exceedingly healthy; even last year, when the 22nd Regiment suffered so heavily from cholera, it escaped with the loss of only two men, and yet the two lines were only separated by a road. When B 4 marched in, nearly four years ago, the horses were in a very bad condition indeed, having suffered severely during their three years' stay at Barrackpore; they, however, soon picked up here, and no horses could have been in better form than they were leaving yesterday. The following officers accompany the Battery: Major Garnault in command, Captain Ferrier, Lieutenants Russel and Tyrwhitt, Surgeon-Major Boulton, A. M. D., in Medical and Surgeon Killick in Veterinary charge. None of these officers marched in with the Battery in 1878. A large party from the station accompanied the Battery for about four miles out, where an early breakfast had been prepared for them, after which they bid farewell to their old friends and returned to the station.—Pioneer.

ATTEMPTS TO SWINDLE ANGLO-INDIANS AT HOME.

So many Anglo-Indians are obliged to establish their wives at home that it may be worth while to put them on their guard against a current device of the ubiquitous London swindler. A few mails ago, the Pioneer hears, a lady staying in London with her mother—in a household consisting of ladies entirely—wrote to her husband in India:—"While I was ill or just before some one called professing to be a friend of yours in India. As I was either out or ill he said he would call again, and would not either leave his card or name. A day or two ago he called again, and I was again out, so he asked to see someone else belonging to the house and, the housemaid took him up into the drawing-room where my mother went to him. He introduced himself as a Mr. Omar, spoke of you as—(tout court, i.e., without the Mr.) and made himself very familiar, and, of course, unpleasant. Asked who he had the pleasure of speaking to, and on hearing it was my mother said with effusion, Oh! then he must shake hands. He sat and sat, and last said as he had come all the way from Surrey and had to go back there, he should be glad of some refreshment. My mother getting more and more impatient and angry suggested bread and butter, but he said he did not care for that, and proposed port wine. So she foolishly ordered up wine and cake. He nibbled the latter but took freely of the wine; cross-questioned her as to where we were going, and when coming back, which my mother properly enough avoided telling him. He expressed himself deeply disappointed at not seeing me, as if he had been a friend of the house, &c." Of course, Mr. Omar was a person quite unknown really to the Anglo-Indian lady. But by the last mail comes further news of him. The lady writes:—"The way that dreadful Mr. Omar hangs about this establishment is quite a nuisance. He came while we were all away; questioned and cross-questioned the cook. He came again about a week ago, sending in, this time, his name as Mr. Thomas, and asking to see me, saying he was a gentleman connected with India. This put me at once on my guard, and I sent word that he had better tell the servant what his business was. He sent word back that he wished to hear something about some old friends of his in Allahabad. I went to him in the hall, and found a respectably dressed, elderly man of dark complexion. He asked could he have a few minutes conversation with me, and I said I would rather not, as I was far from well, which was true. However, he came into the dining-room saying, as I was not well, he would call another day, but I said if he had any business he had better disclose it at once. He then merely asked about 'Turner' as he called him, meaning, I suppose, Sir Charles, and also Mr. Ricketts, evidently knowing nothing really about them but the names. Seeing, I imagine, that he was not likely to impose on me, or get anything out of me, he went away. Comparing notes with my mother and the cook, I found he was the same man who came before." What the man's plan can have been is not readily apparent, but by patiently exploring the households of Anglo-Indian ladies he may reckon on finding some, sooner or later, where he will be accepted as a friend of the absent husband, and in this capacity be at liberty to develope some plan of fraudulent operation.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.—Pre-eminently the Cod Liver Oil for use in India and in warm climates. Joseph Adams Popjo, Esq., late Staff Surgeon, Army, writes: "I found during my Indian experience that the worth and character of Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil remained unchanged by tropical heat or foreign climate, and it was, from its uniformity of character, particularly adapted for long-continued administration. The Oil of Dr. de Jongh places in every one's reach a reliable and valuable remedy, one that cannot be too widely recognized." Sold only in capsuled Imperial Half-pints, Pints, and Quarts, by all chemists, druggists, and storekeepers. Sole Consignees, Ansar, Harford and Co., 77, Strand, London.
